

What is one who explains something to another?	interpreter
What is one who is free of guilt or knows nothing of evil?	innocent
What is the use of everyday characters or things to tell a truth about good and evil?	allegory
What is a poison that some animals, insects, or spiders have when they bite or sting?	venom
What word means clothing or garment?	raiment
What is strictly following a set of guidelines or rules?	formal
What is pretending to have certain religious beliefs?	hypocrisy
What is a load that is carried?	burden
What is a burial place?	tomb
What is comfort or freedom from difficulty?	ease

What is a shady area created by tree branches or climbing vines?

arbor