

BJUP Reading 6

Unit 2

vicar

What means clergy from the Church of England?

scuttle

What means a container for carrying coal?

dominated

What means obviously positioned?

flanked

What means placed on each side?

parchment

What means sheepskin used as paper?

vellum

What means fine lambskin parchment?

reverently

What means feeling deep respect?

Moslem	What means a believer of Islam religion?
scullery	What means a room for cleaning dishes?
irksome	What means annoying?
parishioners	What means church district members?
exploits	What means heroic or daring deeds?
bunging	What means flinging in British slang?
bodice	What means a woman's blouse vest?
flounced	What means used bouncy movements?

hedges

What means rows of close shrubs?

draymen

What means drivers of hauling carts?

livery

What means the male servants' uniform?

askew

What means not lined up or not straight?

unlettered

What means illiterate or unable to read?

apprentice

What means one who learns skill from craftsman?

resume

What means to begin again or to continue?

frivolous

What means not serious or important?

fortnight

What means two weeks?

presume

What means to act without permission?

amenities

What means polite conversation?

apoplexy

What means a stroke or a small brain attack?

embezzlement

What means to steal money from job?

breach

What means to break a rule or contract?

valise

What means a small suitcase or luggage?